

The magnetosphere in thermal electrons: Cluster and Double Star PEACE measurements

M.H. Denton (1), M.G. Taylor (2), A.N. Fazakerley (3), A.D. Lahiff (3), B. Mihaljcic (3), and I Rozum (3)

(1) Department of Communication Systems, Lancaster University, Lancaster, LA1 4WA, UK, (2) European Space Agency, D-SRE, Noordwijk, Netherlands (mtaylor@rssd.esa.int), (3) Mullard Space Science Laboratory, University College London, Dorking, Surrey, RH5 6NT, UK

This paper presents a statistical overview of Cluster PEACE electron measurements combined with measurements from PEACE Double star 1 and Double Star 2. This investigation follows on from the recent Denton and Taylor, 2008 investigation of global ion characteristics. A preliminary of the relation between magnetospheric conditioning and upstream driving on the electron characteristics of the magnetosphere is presented.