

Warming of the World Ocean, 1955-2009

Sydney Levitus

World Data Center for Oceanography, Silver Spring, NODC/NOAA, E/OC5, Silver Spring, United States
(sydney.levitus@noaa.gov, +1-301-713-3303)

We present estimates of global ocean heat content for 1955-2009 that are based on temperature profiles corrected for bathythermograph biases. Correcting for these biases reduces the magnitude of interdecadal variability in the time series. We also present descriptions of the variability of temperature and salinity for various parts of the world ocean.