

Characteristics, physical - geographical and climate of the basin Lumbardhi in Peja, Republic of Kosovo

Lavdim Osmanaj (1,,), Vildane Zeneli (,,), Alket Komoraku (,,)

(1) (University of Prishtina FXM), Prishtina, Republic of Kosova(olavdim@yahoo.com)+381290329200, (2) (University of Prishtina FXM), Prishtina, Republic of Kosova(vildane_zeneli@hotmail.com)+381290329200, () (University of Prishtina FXM), Prishtina, Republic of Kosova(alketkumaraku@yahoo.com)+381290329200

Territory of the Republic of Kosovo has four river basins; basin “White Drini”, “Ibar”, “Morava e Binces” and “Lepenci”.

This paper deals: Orografic, hydro geological, geological and climatic characteristics.

River basin of Peja “Lumbardhi” is branch of River basin “ White Drini”, all surface of the basin until shedding to the “ White Drini” is 483.00km² and extends toward east and west.

Lumbardhi source of Peja is branch of Mount Çakorr. As right main branches are: River Bjeluha and lake Milishevci, whereas in the left side of river Boga and Alga.

Key works: rainfall, air temperature, snow, air humidity, wind, evaporation.