

Vine response, grape and wine quality of Pinot gris grown on three different soils in the Piave DOC Area, Italy

Patrick Marcuzzo, Federica Gaiotti, Despoina Petoumenou, and Diego Tomasi

CRA-Consiglio per la Ricerca e la sperimentazione in Agricoltura, Centro di Ricerca per la Viticoltura, Viale 28 Aprile 26, Conegliano (TV) ITALY (diego.tomasi@entecra.it)

In a 4-year-study, vegetative, productive and qualitative responses of Pinot gris have been collected in three different soils (gravelly, clay and loam soils). The soils were characterized for chemical, physical composition and water content during the vegetative season.