Natural Aerosols in Climate Change

Chat room open: Monday, 4 May 2020, 08:30 – 10:15

When you enter the chat room, please introduce yourself briefly and familiarise yourselves with the uploaded presentations (see the list on the right). We start at 8:45 with the discussions following the order of the abstracts. We will ask each presenter to summarise two to three key points from their display. When directing a question or comment to a display please include the name of the author with @.

We look forward to chat with you. Let's jointly shape digital conferences.
