

Auroral radio emissions and their relationship to optical planetary aurorae

R. Prangé (1)

(1) Observatoire de Paris, CNRS, France (renee.prange@obspm.fr, Fax: +33 1 45 07 71 65)

Abstract

I will review the morphological characteristics of the auroral radio emissions on Earth, Jupiter and Saturn, and I will compare them to the aurorae observed in the UV/visible/IR spectral range. I will then discuss the implications of their relationship in term of magnetospheric dynamics.